SCHOOL ECO-

P S

1) The educational importance of being sustainable is not yet recognised.

2) There is no organization that connects the schools interested in the issue to each

3) Lack of sensitivity to the theme of eco-sustainability especially on the part of Generation

A photograph of three children in a wooded area. The child on the left is a girl with long brown hair, wearing a teal shirt, with mud on her hands and arms. The child in the middle is a girl with dark hair, wearing a light green shirt, also with mud on her hands. The child on the right is a boy with short brown hair, wearing a yellow shirt, with mud on his hands. They are all smiling and looking towards each other. A semi-transparent light green box is overlaid on the bottom half of the image, containing the text.

Why IVAN?

The acronym I.V.A.N. has taken inspiration from a bearded dragon, our mascot as well as a pet with such name.

ALL IN THIS

Our project involves every members of the school ecosystem (teachers, school employes and even chefs in canteen) in the fight for sustainibility.
