

VIDEO DESCRIPTION

Welcome to the future of gastronomy with FOODCOST, your essential ally to take your culinary creations to the next level!

Imagine a world where calculating your gastronomic budget is as simple as a couple of clicks. Imagine no more, FOODCOST makes it possible! This innovative simulator, available in both a web version and a cutting-edge mobile application, is designed to revolutionize your experience in the kitchen and, especially, in gastronomic learning.

FOODCOST is not just a simulator, it is your personal assistant in preparing costs. Are you facing the difficulty of converting units of measurement when purchasing ingredients? Don't worry! With the weight function, you can easily adjust the quantities, whether in kilos, pounds, grams, arrobas or even milliliters and ounces for the liquid part. The versatility you've always wanted is now at your fingertips.

But that is not all. FOODCOST goes further by offering you the power to know the nutritional value of your creations. It calculates micro and macronutrients, as well as the caloric value of each ingredient, giving you the essential information to adapt your recipes to the market you want to conquer.

The real gem of FOODCOST lies in its ability to calculate the selling price of the dish. Do you want to add utility, salaries, energy, taxes or other elements to your equation? Do it with ease and define the profit margin that propels you towards financial success!

Have you faced the dilemma of ingredient names in international recipes? FOODCOST removes that barrier, providing you with synonyms so you can understand and adapt recipes from anywhere in the world. For example, strawberry, strawberrry or raspberrry? FOODCOST clarifies it for you.

But the real magic lies in the FOODCOST community. A vibrant forum connects you with lovers of the gastronomic world, where you can exchange questions, suggestions and experiences. Imagine learning and growing with the help of a network of experts and enthusiasts like you!

FOODCOST is not only a simulator, it is a comprehensive tool that allows you to calculate your gastronomic budget quickly, organized and accurately. Include your daily income and expenses, get costs and profits, and make informed financial decisions like never before!

Discover the revolution in the kitchen with FOODCOST. Get ready for a culinary experience without limits
