

Dina Guglielmi – Curriculum vitae

1. Licence and Ph.D.

Ph.D. in Psychology at University of Bologna. Dissertation title: Become a professional: facilitating factors and obstacles for the development of professional competences, 2002. Degree in Psychology at the University of Bologna, 1996.

2. Position at University

Currently she is full professor in Work and Organizational Psychology at the Department of Educational Studies “Giovanni Maria Bertin” (University of Bologna) and Director of Second cycle degree in Planning and managing of educational intervention in social distress.

3. Teaching experience in Work and Organizational Psychology

Has been teaching, at the Department of Psychology and of Educational Studies of the University of Bologna, in courses of first and second Degree level. Currently teaching Work and Organisational Psychology (8 CFU) and Psychology of guidance and transitions adult (8 CFU) in courses of second degree level

4. Professional Activity

From 1997 has worked as a consultant for Ce.Trans - Centro per le Transizioni al Lavoro e nel Lavoro – that today is a branch of the Department of Psychology (University of Bologna) on the following activities: development of assessment instruments for school and career counselling; planning of training courses and services for counselling and employability. Has participated and served as scientific director of projects of national level (eg. Services aimed at creating a regional system for monitoring and evaluation of interventions and guidance services, FVG Region) and international (eg. Leonardo da Vinci project "GIANT - Guidance: Innovative Actions and New Tools").

5. Publications

Has published, as main author and co-author, a number of scientific papers (books and book chapters, articles in national and international scientific journals), and presented many communications in scientific international congresses.