

Video and Pictures Guidelines

Rethinking education in the age of digital skills.

Hey dear host! We're the DEH team, and we've put together a guide to help you share great content with us.

As hosts, you're ambassadors of this initiative, and we want to make that as easy as possible for you.

Video and Pictures Guidelines

Rethinking education in
the age of digital skills.

About this guide

This document will help you create and share short videos and testimonials that capture the spirit of your DigiEduHack event. Your footage will contribute to the official recap video and be showcased during the Main Stage event.

You'll find simple instructions on filming techniques, talking points, and quality tips - no professional equipment needed.

Our goal is to help you tell your story and highlight the creativity, collaboration, and impact of your hackathon in the best possible way.

Important:

Media Consent Requirements

Any videos or images you submit may be used for DigiEduHack promotional materials, including event recap videos, social media posts, and our website. Your responsibility: Before filming, ensure all visible participants complete the media consent form (page 7). You must obtain proper consent from everyone who appears in your content.

You'll confirm consent compliance when submitting your content through our form.

Thank you for respecting participant privacy - it's essential to building trust in our community.

Responsibility

Appoint one person as responsible to ensure coherence and not missing anything out

01

Content

Define moments to capture: opening remarks, team work in progress, audience reactions, applause, any other relevant moments.

02

Testimonials

Prepare short interviews/testimonials with hosts and participants with preselected questions

03

Deadlines

Define timings and deadlines to have the material ready to send

04

Video Guidelines

the age of digital skills.

Landscape

Make sure to film in landscape.

05

Good light

Make sure you are filming somewhere with a lot of light (ideally natural light). Consider going in front of a window or turning on all lights around you.

06

Good quality

Make sure you film with a phone that has good quality.

07

Good sound

Make sure you eliminate all surrounding sounds and that you are in a quiet space.

08

Prompt Questions for Testimonials

Rethinking education in the age of digital skills.

What was the most exciting or impactful part of your experience during the DigiEduHack?

01

How do you think your team's solution could contribute to the future of digital education?

02

What did you learn from collaborating with participants from diverse backgrounds?

03

Why would you encourage other people to participate in DigiEduHack in future editions?

04

Record the teams saying: "We came in with an idea - we're leaving with a solution", in their national language
